Well Kym —

Back to DANville you go. I wish you were staying, but if you really hate it that much then go home. I respect your idea. Fuck we had a rad time in upper sophomore. I will never forget our "biology" (sex) discussion, or our Red and blue lights. What about our dance party. That was so much fun. I'm bummed we didn't take more advantage of our bathroom (smoking) or stuff like that. I'm sure you'll never forget the day I came back totally drunk or when I came back stoned, that was the night of the Earthquake. "We're gonna be in the Red Parlor if we move. Don't Move!" What about our Noodle fight. I bet there are still Noodles up there. I love you so much. We'll have to go out this summer. You'll have to take me to a real party! (Since I've never been)

"Party Hardy, Rock & Rol. Drink a keg. Smoke a bowl. We'll be Jammin' all the way, 'Cause we're the class of '90 Yeah!"

Don't you dare use that quote for your class at M.V. That can only be used at S.C.!

You talked until your tounge fell out & then you talked some more

That's me → You can go get your licence & — The Cure

Hey Kym,

Well babe, this has gone by to fast for words. But just think! We are finally Juniors & you're OUT OF HERE!!! Stokin'! But I'll miss you next year. It's not going to be the same without ya here. Remember me though. k? All those conversations with you & Sean (on the phone), but of course how could you forget all my conversations with Todd on the phone. I hope you stay with Sean for as long as I have with Todd. ~Now if you don't promise me one thing. Don't break too many hearts, -AND HAVE FUN!!!! Freshman dorm was fun with you there. (Otherwise - it would have been a complete disaster.)

Dancing buds forever!!!!!~and ever. (Your dad is so cute!) But anyways ~ I actually found someone who dances kinda like me and we're nothing less than awesome. (Well - at least you are. I need to go on a DIET!!! ☺) ← The ever famous words spoken at Catalina.

Loved spending all my nights in study hall staring at books with "Mr. Ken Buchanan". Oh sexy mama!! ☺ He liked you so much he loved to stand by you to feel closer to you. Let me tell you — He TURNS ME ON!! → GOD HE'S HOT!! (Seriously - I'm JUST KIDDING!)

Wish you weren't leaving. I wanted to be roomies with you. Oh well - I guess I'll never see the day. ☹ Never forget me Kim. And do keep in touch. I'll write to you over the summer and next year. You are such a total cutie and I wish you the best in the future and next year at your new school. We'll miss you here & I'll miss you a lot. I love you! Keep in touch and God Bless You.

Phenomenal

Kim,

This past year has been so so great. I'm going to miss you next year. I have the saddest time at Monte Vista and say hi to every one for me. Please keep in close touch. After all we don't live too far from each other. Lets try to get together this Summer. You're a real sweetheart and I'd really hate to lose our friendship over a 20 minute drive. I Love You! Energetic Energy, zest for life, and impulsive spirit create an enthusiasm which surrounds her and affects all who come in contact with her. This enthusiasm is clearly seen in her dedication to our school performances and to each drama class she teaches. One cannot leave Santa Catalina without taking a piece of Rosamund Zanides' enthusiasm.

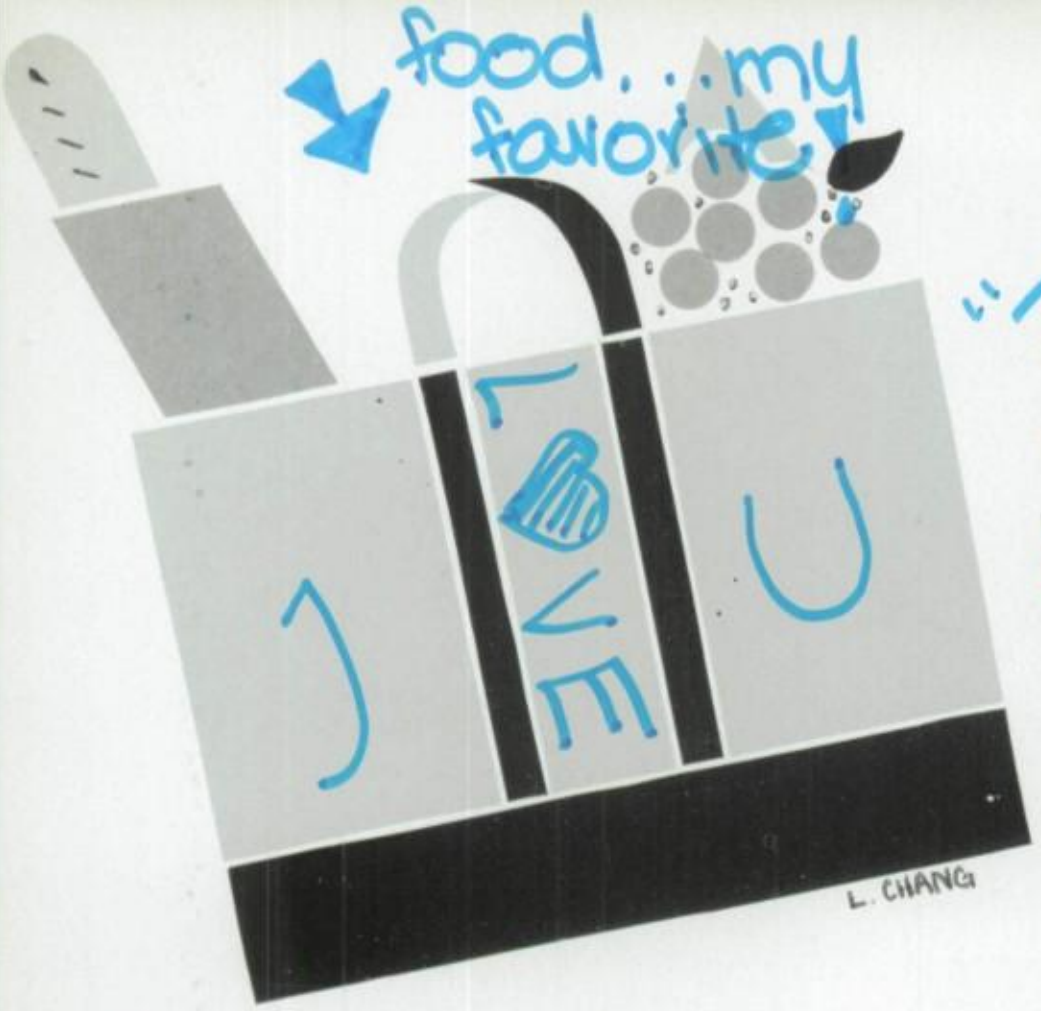
This enthusiasm shows in the many roles Mrs. Z. willingly plays at Catalina. Three times a year she focuses all of her energies on creating and perfecting spectacular plays. The two musicals for Parents' Weekend and Father-Daughter Weekend leave us singing in our seats, and our parents, especially those dads, dancing in the aisles. These lighter musicals are far different from the deeper dramas which stir-up strong emotions and leave us with tears in our eyes. She throws herself entirely into each play she directs to make them meaningful and special to us. Furthermore, after seeing one of her plays, a feeling of elation and excitement takes over, as if some of her energy has been absorbed by each member of the audience.

A similar feeling occurs after experiencing one of her drama classes. In class, students sense her power, and she earns their great respect. Acting is not the only thing taught in these classes. Mrs. Z. teaches us about ourselves. Her open-mindedness and uninhibited style encourage us to probe the inner corners of our mind. Her free spirit helps to establish a close bond between her and her students. This bond surpasses the common student-educator relationship and enters the realm of friendship. Mrs. Z. plays the special role of our friend: someone we can trust, love, and keep close to our hearts wherever we may go.

For this year's finale, the students and faculty at Santa Catalina rise in a standing ovation as we dedicate the 1988 yearbook to a talented and zany woman, Mrs. Zanides. Thank you, Mrs. Z., for brightening our days and enlightening our lives.



"I've had the time of my life and I never felt this way before!"

It's so hard to think that this year is over and I will never see you again. Before you go I want to let you know how much I ♡U and think of you. I am so proud of you in English when you do well on a quiz and how hard to are trying to achieve. Kym I have confidence in you because I know that you are a goal setter. I want to tell you just how much you mean to me and what a wonderful friend you are, but I hope at least by now that you have the idea. Kym I will never forget the times we've had... and through good and bad I loved you! You're a very ~~sweet~~ special and true friend... I will miss you forever and love you for an eternity (you know I can't spell

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The night of the traditional Halloween Party was enlivened by the successful efforts of the Freshman Class. They truly proved themselves as they fulfilled their official initiation to the school. The Dining Room was transformed into an eerie graveyard, dimmed lights and cobwebs galore, while spooks, goblins, and various other creatures roamed the tombstones. Undoubtedly, the skit was the highlight of the evening as the Freshmen entertained all with an improvisation of a typical, or not so typical, evening in Study Hall. As described by Juliana Wilber, it was "definitely the most creative and by far the best Halloween as of yet."

Prizes were awarded to those with the most original costumes. Michelle Oberle won first place with her native Harem outfit, and little Tommy Dowson came in second dressed adorably as Donald Duck. The night was filled with enjoyment and intrigue, leaving next year's Freshmen with a hard act to follow.

SENIOR TEA

Held in upper Senior Lounge, Senior Tea brought together faculty and Seniors for an afternoon of delight. Amidst cucumber sandwiches, brownies, cookies, and other goodies, we transgressed the stereotypical teacher/student roles as we discussed non-academic subjects. Seniors enjoyed their roles as hostesses, and faculty, no doubt, enjoyed being waited on. As the afternoon came to a close, teachers and students left feeling as if they had really gotten to know one another.

PARENTS' WEEKEND

Parents' Weekend was a wonderful and special time for all Catalinans. Even those students whose parents were not able to come benefitted from the informative lectures and entertaining play. Dr. A. Emerson Johnson III, the principal from Shady Side Academy, gave a charming and interesting lecture Saturday morning. We also heard of the astounding achievements that our fellow Catalinans have made academically, athletically and through community service from alumnae.

Parents and faculty gathered together, some for the first time and some for the last. Although the weekend was rather chilly, somehow the shining faces of parents and students reunited for the brief weekend warmed our spirits. Seniors finally got to eat lunch in the Dining Room, while Juniors ate their last Parents' Weekend lunch in Study Hall. Looking back through the years and through the lectures and luncheons, it is nice to know that the traditions will be passed on to new faces.

The weekend came to a close with the grand finale, the performance of Dear World. Cast members jumped around, frantically going over cues, as Elizabeth Duke, the Stage Manager, chatted on the headphones.

Success was evident in the minds of all as we finished the weekend with a beautiful mass Sunday morning.

TALENT SHOW

We all know Catalinans are talented, and Amateur Night, Catalina's version of a talent show, was the perfect way to showcase some of the unique qualities of our student body. A Junior showed incredible possibilites in the imitation department when she mimicked the Church Lady from Saturday Night Live. Two other Juniors gave an admirable juggling show and lesson. A handful of Seniors gave us their version of "Don't hate me because I'm beautiful."

As we left the Dining Room after Amateur Night, we were full of awe and newfound respect for our multi-talented classmates.

COME TO JAMAICA.
JAMAICA POUR VOUS...

The 1987 Santa Catalina Fall Dance was held on November 7. A record number of 130 couples attended the annual extravaganza which was deemed a success by all who attended. "It was one of the best nights of my life!" exclaimed ecstatic Junior Erica Bailey.

Imaginative members of the class of 1990 came up with the theme of "Jamaica," which they played to the hilt. From sounds of reggae to saronged sophomore "bartenders" to a thatched hut for a refreshment stand, the Study Hall was transformed into a tropical paradise filled with beautiful ladies and handsome gentlemen dancing the night away.

CHRISTMAS AT CATALINA

When you see the word "Christmas", the first images to enter your mind are probably Christmas trees, the Nativity Scene, candy canes, mistletoe, vacation, and, how can we forget, Santa Claus and Rudolph! These are the traditions we followed through our childhood. Here at Catalina, our traditions revolve around the Christmas ideals of bringing happiness to others.

One event which is always anticipated is Candlelight Mass. Serenity and splendor descend upon you as you enter the darkened chapel. The celebration of the mass is a time to reflect on our innermost thoughts. The Catalina community is united as we walk out into the crisp night air through a tunnel of faces illuminated by candles. As we assemble outdoors, the evening is completed as the Seniors lead the school through a variety of Christmas carols.

A frustrating though enjoyable aspect of Christmas occurs when we try to fool our Kris Kringles, while at the same time attempting to uncover the identity of our own giftgiver. Then comes the day we have all been anticipating as we wait to discover who reveals herself as our K.K. When the moment finally arrives we are filled with both anxiety and delight.

However, Christmas is not only about indulging in our own happiness but also making the holidays more meaningful for those less fortunate. Together, Catalinans spread the season's joy by sharing our food and toys with the migrant farm workers. Through Change Day and Christmas baskets, Catalina endeavors to make the Christmas holiday a memorable one for all.

Christmas at Catalina is composed of assorted events and opportunities in which we all participate. As we unite, we illustrate "Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward All."

INDEPENDENT STUDY: A SENIOR'S FREEDOM

In the beginning of February the tradition started--two weeks away from school in the working world. Experiences were different as each girl set out for a separate destination. Some decided to endure the cold as they left for such places as New York, while others decided to stay closer to home. Independent Study, however, was not only an opportunity to receive a taste of a future occupation, but it was also a time to be involved in things that interested her or that she would never get a chance to do again. For those who travelled internationally, the times were unforgettable. Veronica Fujisawa, who studied at the Instituto Cultural Cabañas, said, "Not only did I learn about Mexico's culture and history, but I also was able to see Mexico's perception of America more clearly." Indeed, the experiences of the Class of 1988 were wonderful. Although the projects are quite diverse, all the seniors will agree that Independent Study is definitely one of the best opportunities Santa Catalina offers to help the students develop fully.

DAY STUDENT PARTY

Every year the day students give a party for the boarders to show the boarders that they, too, know how to "PARTY CATALINA STYLE." At this year's party the roles of the day stu and the boarder were again reversed. In their boarderhood the day stu's livened up the dining room with streamers, balloons, food and visits from our South of the Border music friends Barry Manilow, Willie Nelson, and Julio Iglesias. The boarders arrived in their new convertible huaraches, danced, sang, and ate (Day Stu Pie) the night away. Hugs and laughs traveled South of the Border with the Mexicana-Catalinians.

-Ina Batinovich

PAUL ANKA CONCERT

Paul Anka gave a dazzling benefit concert for Santa Catalina on February 21. In his flashy performance, he sang some modern songs as well as some of his well-known older classics. His energetic and amusing personality clearly kept the audience in high spirits. Our lucky choir joined him in a tribute to world peace called "Freedom for the World." At the end, he sang an original tribute to Catalina, which brought the house down. Truly, this concert was one which will be recalled for years to come.

-Elizabeth Duke

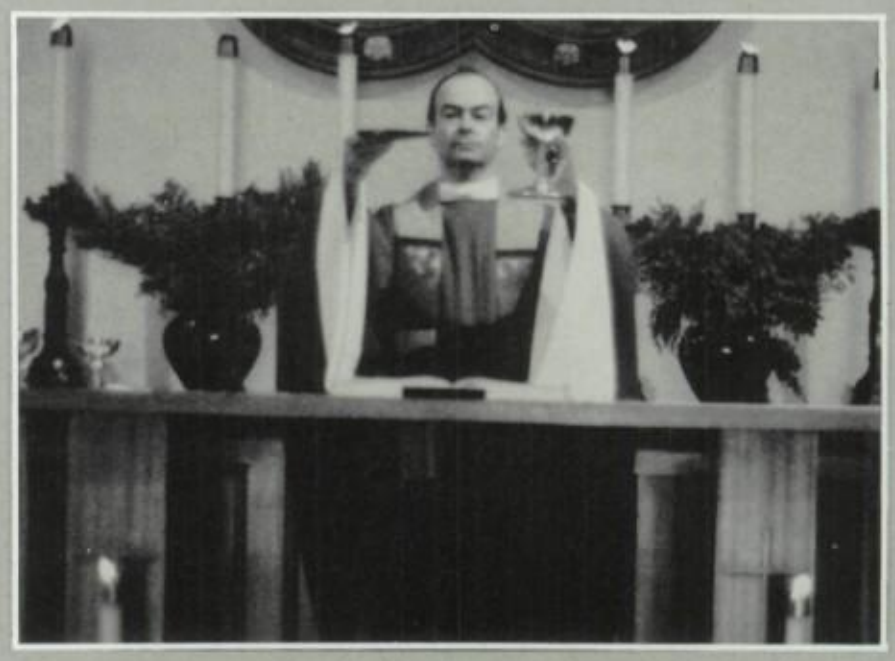
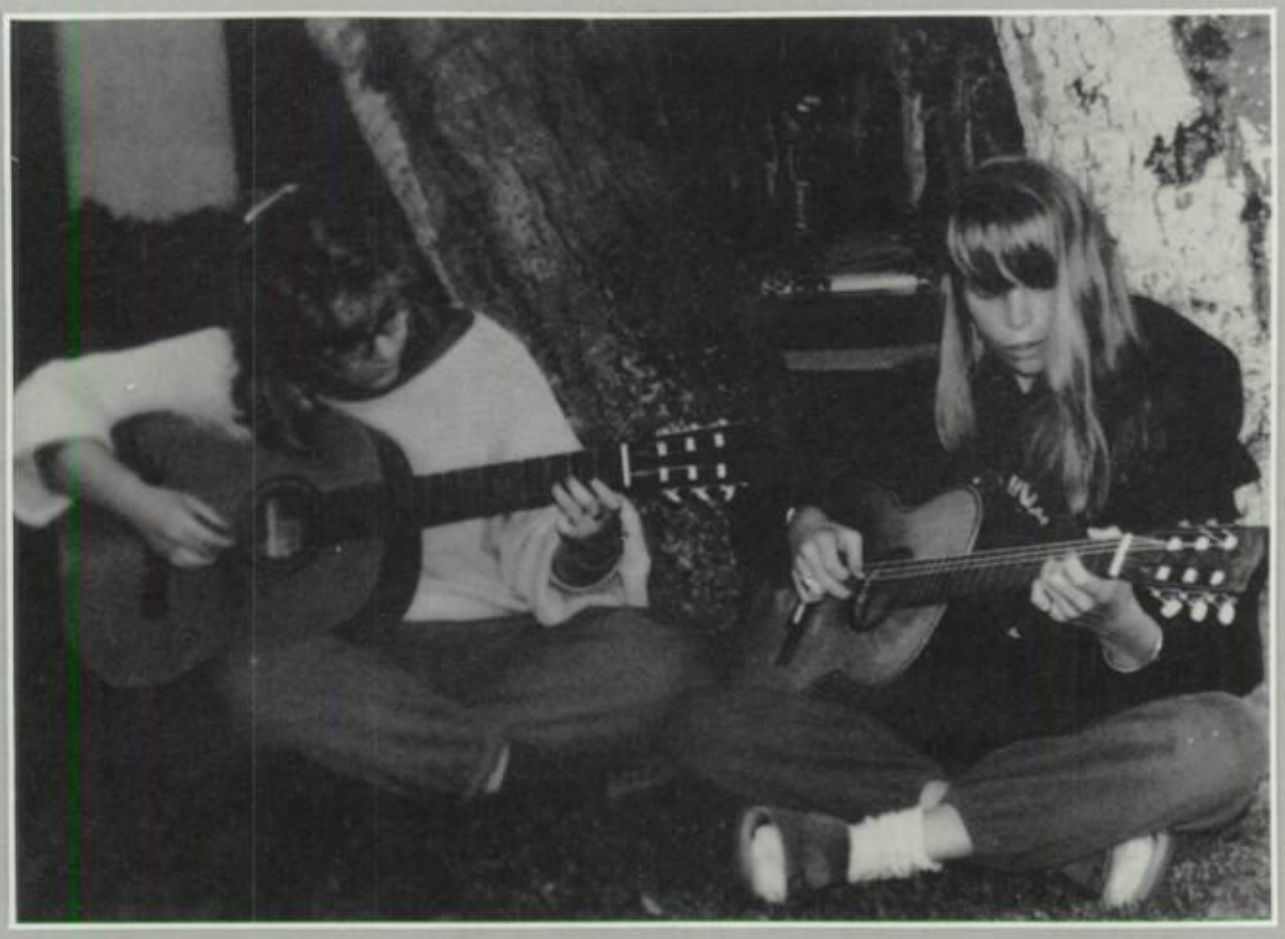
Retreat is always a time to sit back and review the year. It is a time to start over with a clean slate and this year the theme was, very appropriately so, A New Beginning. It was a spiritually enlightening experience for most, but for some like Erika Cea "it was a time to laugh and share with friends and basically a real blast!" On the other hand another senior, Karen Longoria, found retreat to be a time to gain self-awareness. Julie Wilber said, "The one thing I will miss most about my years here at Catalina will be the annual retreat." Jennifer Eppler invested a lot of time and effort in preparation for this very meaningful event. Faces reflected the joy that everyone gained during these three days as the students were observed running from activity to activity and passing their time talking and laughing with each other. To sum it up in the words of Sarah Hoagland," It was a time to learn and to love."

-J.M. Hoke





Kim-
It's been such a great year. I am sad you are leaving our class so soon. Your a special person and a good friend. Enjoy the summer and thanks for helping me with Spirit Day. I'll miss it next year! without you. Play it safe and keep in touch.

RING DINNER

March 12, 1988, was a very significant and meaningful day for both the Juniors and the Seniors. It was a golden day, when juniors received their rings. This ring is not like any other; it is a class ring that not only symbolizes all of one's hard work and patience, but also represents a bond between one's classmates and ring sister. It was a night of anticipation, excitement, and enjoyment.

TENNIS TEAM: SWINGING TO SUCCESS

The Tennis Team was led this year by coaches Sherry Blair and Nancy Martin with the help of team captains Jamie Parrish and Beverly Yap. The combined efforts of these leaders and their talented teammates brought the team to the top of their league with an overall record of fourteen victories, two defeats. Catalina is one of the main contenders in tennis, and the strength of the team is easily seen in their great record. The Mission Trail Athletic League made great efforts to raise the competition level, but the team remained at the top, tied for the Championships right up to the last match of the season. Mrs. Blair looks forward to a successful season next year, as she sees a great amount of potential in the younger players.

SWIMMING: LIKE FISH OUT OF WATER

SWIMMERS TAKE YOUR MARK, GET SET... GOOOO! Our swim team made quite a splash this year, due to the swimmers' hard work and great coaching by Mr. Morton and new assistant, Dr. Luckenbach. As the team glided through the season, everyone enthusiastically cheered each other on and displayed true unity. Each member strove to do her best, especially at the League Championships, where Catalina placed third.

The divers also made their mark under the training of Mr. Morton and Mr. Scheuermann. Meghann Mayer, Sandy Bell, and Emily Palmer went to the Diving Championships and did quite well.

At the CCS Championships Erin Johnson, Amber Olsen, Richelle Schiro, and Caroline Leigh-Wood tied the school record in the 400 Free. However, the pièce de résistance occurred when Leigh-Wood smashed the record in the 500 Free by six seconds! Truly, both teams deserve a pat on the back for the great job they accomplished this year.

CROSS COUNTRY: MAKING A RUN FOR IT

Faint breezes cool the wet brows of many tired and painfilled cross country runners after a busy season. Through wild bush they ran with a tremendous amount of dedication that ended in a successful season. By coming in second place in their league our team advanced to the C.C.S. competition where they placed first. The satisfaction of a season well done was even more profound when they sent their star runner, Rachel Lewis, to Munich, Germany for an international competition, where she placed second in the 19 and under division. "The race itself was rigorous as I ran 10 kilometers (6.2 miles) with 1000 people surrounding me, but it was something that I shall never forget. I was honored to receive the invitation to participate," said Rachel.

FIELD HOCKEY: WE POLISH THE DREAM

Drenched with mud, sweat dripping from their temples, and sticks on the ground, The Santa Catalina Hockey Team is ready to play. Neither rain, sleet, nor snow could lower the spirit of this outstanding team. The team members have worked hard to earn their reputation as " the team to beat."

With over 100 students trying out for this year's team, it was a tough decision for coaches Mrs. Stock, Miss Martin, and Mr. Morton to make, narrowing the team down to its 44 players. "Ever since tryouts it has been work, work, work," exclaims Jennie Morey, "but nothing is more enjoyable or satisfying."

Although many of us may not understand the work that goes into a winning team, we do notice the close knit family bonds which evolve among team members. "Hockey is all about cooperation and respect," says Steffanie Chain. Miss Martin adds, "Field Hockey is one of the most fun teams to coach because the athletes are so dedicated to the game and their teammates. They put 110 percent into every game and practice."

BASKETBALL: SHOOTING FOR THE TOP

IT DOESN'T MATTER IF THEY WIN OR LOSE, IT'S HOW THEY PLAY THE GAME! The basketball team of 1987-1988 holds this motto enthusiastically through the winning and losing. Mr. Dowson, the founder and coach of the team, looks at this year's team optimistically. "They are the most dedicated, best performing, and largest team we've had thus far." The players admire "Dowie" because of his commitment and integrity. "We love him because he just wants us to do our best. He cares about us and supports us in our endeavors," claims member Tina Oven. "No one could find a more dedicated coach!"

WORLD CUP SOCCER: WE DO IT FOR KICKS

World Cup Soccer, Catalina's answer to making couch potatoes exercise, had another successful year with the help of the invincible Dr. Doom, a.k.a. Mr. Oder, the Bald Eagle, a.k.a. Mr. Morton, and Miss Martin. Norway, being the team of this writer, proved to be a spirited and unique, if not winning, team. Actually, from an unbiased opinion, all the teams had a great year. Highlights of this year's games included watching the Oberles battle over the soccer ball and watching Mr. Oder intimidate frail freshmen. Of course, it is always exciting to watch determined players run for the ball, poised for a moment of perfect balance and symmetry, and with a swift and powerful kick, miss the ball and fall flat on their faces.

This wonderful and occasionally brutal Catalina tradition, played by the class of '88 in recognition of Farny, has become an integral part of our lives as we incessantly hear the beautiful demands of our team captains to show up Sunday, or else....

-Tara Noel Howley

SOFTBALL

With bubble gum furnished by Mr. Oder and drills furnished by coaches Jim Morton and Nancy Martin, both Varsity and JV worked hard to perfect their skills. Team spirit became as important as winning.

Commented Pamela Ham '88, "It sometimes seems as if we fool around a lot, but we are much more dedicated than others think. I enjoy the sport because I experience a totally different relationship with my friends on the field. We not only learn to play with each other but work as well. I must admit that any athletic sport takes a lot of work, but in the end it is always worth the trials and frustrations we go through." Rebecca Khamneipur '89 remarked, "It's great to be on the team."

TRACK

The construction of the Bedford Athletic Complex is underway, and new additions to facilities are arriving constantly. This year, the Santa Catalina track team has been given a high jump and a pit for the long jump, as well as use of the one-sixth mile track team. The acquisition of new equipment for the track team in coach Joe Mendelson's second year at Santa Catalina has made a drastic difference in the team's outlook and their predictions on how they will do this year.

"More experience and a more comfortable relationship with Coach Mendelson will add to the success of this year's team," prophesies junior Erica Baily.

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
it was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidence,
Long ago . . . it must be. . .
I have a photograph
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

You just call out my name
And you know where ever I am
I'll come running to see you again.
Winter, Spring, Summer, or Fall,
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there, yes I will
You've got a friend.

-James Taylor

Kym,
Well this year has created many memories for us both.
I'm so glad you came because if you hadn't I wouldn't be writing this. I hope that because we are
I hope the memories
all remain.
Love,

Well how-here I am in study hall; such a memorable place. I am so stoked that this year is over. I can't believe that you are deserting us! Come on now... don't you want to stay? — it's so cool here, we party all the time. Shit, you're going to have no fun in the real world. I know that you would have more fun here (no guys, boring weekends, etc...) - You don't want to go home to party all the time, get drunk be with Sean (or whatever his name is) go out, be free & Well, will you at least think of all of us here... stranded & bored w/ no freedom, lonely with no sex life, anyway I ♡ YA ALWAYS, and I hope I see you in the summer! If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears however measured or far away.

Henry David Thoreau

To know and love one other being is the root of all wisdom.

When I was Young, it seemed that life was so wonderful, a miracle; it was beautiful, magical. All the birds in the trees, they'd be singing so happily, Joyfully, playfully watching me. . .There are times when all the world's asleep, the questions run so deep for such a simple mind. Won't you please, please tell me what we've learned. I Know it sounds absurd, but please tell Me who I am. . .

Breathe, breathe in the air, don't be afraid to care, Leave, but don't leave me, look around, choose your own ground. For long you'll live and high you'll fly
Smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry, cause all you
Touch and all see is all your life will ever be.

THE SISTERS

Catalina is a place for growth. This growth occurs both academically and spiritually. We begin our years here as nervous and naive freshmen, and we leave here confident and motivated young women, ready to take on the world and all its challenges. Four ladies in blue are responsible for our growth as individuals.

As Principal and College Counselor, Sister Carlotta earns our respect. A dedicated and strong woman, she encourages all to broaden their horizons by participating in a wide range of activities. With her warm and welcoming smile, she seeks to challenge our minds and help us become well-rounded young women.

Sister Claire may be a very busy woman with her positions as Vice Principal and Director of the Upper School, but she always makes time for a friendly word or two to remind us to tuck in our shirts. As Head Senior Class Advisor, her apartment is always open to us. Her motherly support, optimism, and pride in us help instill in us the belief that we can do anything to which we set our minds.

Best known for her barbeques, Sister Christine is always thinking of new activities as Junior Class Advisor. Also Dean of Resident Students and an English teacher, she inspires all with her straight-forward manner and confident walk. Working closely with Resident Council, her clever ideas and plans make our weekends more comfortable.

Working constantly as Treasurer, Sister Jean is instrumental in the business aspect of Catalina. Incessantly running errands and planning our financial year, she indirectly helps give us a great education.

These four sisters are dedicated to our growth as individuals. They seek to give us the best education in the most comfortable environment. Their concern for us goes beyond our high school years, as we often hear news about alumnae through them. They act as role models for all of us. Thanks to them, Santa Catalina's spirit will "live within our hearts, and bring new life to each endeavor."

SENATE

Freshman: Party? What party?

Junior: No! Not a party, just hard work, dedication and fun.

F: What?

J: Senate! You know...Michelle Oberle, the Student Body President...

F: ...Who?

J: Senate! They are the people who give Food Baskets at Christmas, organize Amateur Night and Spirit Day. They are also the people who are responsible for the diet-ruining, pound-gaining SNACK BAR!

F: Waterbottle time...

J: They also plan the Boarder's weekends and the Day Stu's days.

F: Oh!

J: They are the people that make sure we work hard, and spend extra time...

F: On term papers?

J: ...at having fun!

F: Oh, I get it. They are the "working students."

J: Yeah!

F: Neat! They do a lot for us, huh?

J: They sure do!

THANK YOU SENATE!

GOODBYE

'87 - '88

THE CRASH

SPIRIT DAY

Opening with the shouting contest and closing with Powder Puff, Spirit day is an exhausting day full of fun games and class rivalry. The Sophomores proved themselves to be the loudest class in the shouting contest while Seniors triumphed in the College Bowl thanks to their infinite wisdom. The Obstacle Course proved to be the most exciting with such obstacles as crab walking over a soapy plastic bag, navigating through tires with fins on, and a tricycle race. The day ended with Powder Puff where the Juniors and Seniors played a hard game of football while the enthusiastic Freshmen and Sophomores supported their sister classes. Spirit Day ended with the Mardi Gras celebration, cupcake eating and great entertainment from the Madonna wanna-be's.

Kym-

Your my life Baby▽ Hi Honey-well FINALS suck shit▽ Yep▽. Anyway- can you bilive we are ont of this hell hole forever▽ God- we have had our memories haven't we. I can remember when I first got here I saw you dancing and thought "Fuck-she has to be a cheerleader." I never imageined you would become my best friend here. Remember Upper sophomore▽ That was totally rad- But I think we did something- First "rat hole" and now no one lives there. Then Upper Sophomore and now no one lives their. ☺ Dude we are too good for anyone to take our beds▽

Remember Bill- God that was a joke▽ ☺ But he was an increduble banger ☺ I know I'm nasty but hey I am a Horney mama and I♡ hard dicks. Anyway Upper Sophmore was the best. Remember I would be afriad to sleep alone and I'd go get you and make you come and sleep with me. That was rad I had the best bed (heater) ☺▽ Anyway remember when you go into Amy Matsons bed and she crawled in and majorly screamed. Or when you guys scared me about ghosts. God-those were rad times you have to admit that▽ ☺

Anyway now that were in "Freshman Dorm" I guess I liked it the best. Because you were my roomie▽ ☺ Kym, do you realize that we have been together 24 hrs. a day for 5 months and not ONE fight▽?! We were made for each other▽ Remember when we first got to Freshman Dorm and were totally pissed- we had a small fucking room. But hey were increduble and It worked. We only have 5 more days here and then were gone forever. ☺ Thank God▽ Anyway you have to come down to Laguna Hills and Party with me Okay. I'll teach you how to play some rad volleyball▽

Anyway- I want a tall, dark, rad man▽ I better be able to meet Ben- he looks mighty rad in the yearbook. I bet he's a good fuck▽ Then again Luke sounds pretty tasty, too▽ ☺ But with me and my small minut, ~~penis~~ punie, petite little chicky It might be painful but Oh what increduble fun▽ I'm Wet- Oh no it's a FLOOD▽

I ♡ U Kym - I'll miss U - Good bye ☺

Hey track buff!

You are such a good runner! Have an awesome vacation, and don't forget to run 20 min. daily (ha ha)

Love ya,

Tina

Kym,

Well honey we made it! It's OVER! I am really glad I got to know you cause I LOVE YOU! I really wish you would come back! Keep in touch "K"? Have a good summer HON! I LOVE YOU!

WE MAKE IT WORTH WHILE

Dear Kym:

I'm glad we got to know each other. You better not forget me. I'm so glad school is finally over. Especially track. I guess it was kinda fun but Mr. M sucked. He doesn't know how to coach, but who cares I'll never see him again. Have fun your next two years of high school and I'll be suffering here at Santa Catalina..... You better write. Good Luck and have an awesome summer.

I LOVE YOU

HUT,

Laura Hope

Kim,
I'm really sorry you're not coming back. We'll miss you! It was fun having you in the class, it's just bad that you didn't join us sooner + that you're leaving next year. Hope you have a great time in whatever other school you'll be.
My Best wishes !!
Love,
Marcela Peralta

Kym,
Summer's Back
I hope you had a great summer and I hope I get to know you better. What I do know about you I like. I think you are a great person. I love you and I hope we keep in touch
Come to San Diego and Visit
Don't party too much and good luck next year
I wish you luck
always
Alex
